As a non-profit performing arts organization, we welcome you as an actor in our plays, a member of our production crews, an audience member at our events, and as an enthusiast who spreads the word to others about our work! We are directed by an independent board of advisors. This volunteer advisory board provides guidance as to the strategic operational aspects of the CLCPAC; making sure the organizational goals and mission are followed.

Mission Statement:

TO CREATE an environment where local performing artists can develop their craft.

TO SHARE with our community diverse, high-quality arts programming; and

TO GROW a community of practitioners and lovers of the performing arts.
